Greetings Oberlin Families, Congratulations on making it to the finish line of the school year! This is our final Weekly Family Communication, and while we are remaining committed to strong teaching and learning right up until the last day, you can definitely expect plenty of fun and celebrations next week. Just a quick reminder to chat with your students about keeping their behavior on point through next week—we'd hate for anyone to lose privileges for end-of-year festivities because of a poor choice. Finally, we want to say a massive thank you for the incredible support that our families have shown our school community all year long. Have an amazing summer break, and a huge shout-out to our eighth graders as they officially head off to high school!

--Ms. Pelton, Principal
