Exam Exemptions

Students in Grades 9-12 at Rolesville High School may be eligible for teacher made exam exemptions based on specific criteria outlined below. This policy aims to recognize students' consistent academic performance and attendance throughout the semester.

- Eligibility Criteria
- Grade Requirement:
- Students must have a projected final grade of B or higher in the course.
- Students can have no more than 10 absences and also no more than 10 tardies and must have a course grade of a 80% or higher to be exempt from teacher-made exams.

Attendance Requirement:

Students must have 10 or fewer absences in the course.

All absences, excused or unexcused, are counted equally toward the 10-day limit.

College visitations are included in the 10-day absence count.

State Testing:

Students cannot be exempt from state-mandated tests (EOC Exam & CTE Post-Assessments), including field testing.

Principal's Authority:

The principal, consistent with GS 115C-288, has the final authority to determine a student's exemption status.

***Teachers must communicate with all students on Wednesday January 14th, 2026 if the student is exempt or not. (this is a hard date). Exemption grade status is based on the students' Projected F1 Grade.

A.) If students have not reached exemption status by January 14th, 2026, they will not be exempt from their exams.

B) Once a teacher has informed a student they have reached exemption status on January 14th, 2026 it cannot be CHANGED.
