Greetings Oberlin Families,

We have had a great week at Oberlin! Please join us in congratulating Ms. Rebekah Hower, Visual Arts Teacher, as Oberlin's 2024 - 2025 Teacher of the Year. Ms. Hower's nomination noted that she is a dedicated and passionate educator with a warm personality that ensures everyone feels welcomed and valued, and we could not agree more. We would also like to thank the Oberlin PTA Grounds Committee and Mr. Beaver Tree Service for supporting us with mulching a tremendous amount of yard waste. Mr. Beaver's Tree Service donated equipment, time, knowledge, and "person power" to improve the safety and aesthetics of our campus, and we are beyond grateful! Thanks to our entire community for supporting our school, and we look forward to a great week ahead.

-- Ms. Pelton, Principal

Week of November 18th - 22nd

Monday, November 18th

- School Improvement Team Meeting, 3:30 Media Center
- Fall Athletics Banquet, 5:00pm - Cafeteria

Friday, November 22nd

- A/B Honor Roll Breakfasts (First / Second Periods)

Oberlin Scholastic Book Fair - Our book fair is right around the corner, and our Oberlin PTA is seeking approved WCPSS parent volunteers to help with set up and running the book fair throughout the week. Volunteer slots for set up, working during the book fair, and packing up are available from November 26th - December 6th. Sign up here, and thanks for supporting our Book Fair!

NJHS Food Drive - From November 20th - December 6th, our school is collecting donations for our annual Food Insecurity Food Drive. Here at Oberlin, we recognize that food insecurity is different than just hunger, it is the struggle of not having a constant, reliable source of food, and it affects many of our students as well. Because of this, our NJHS students have organized this food drive to collect donations that will be transported to the Food Bank of Central and Eastern North Carolina who will further distribute them to those in need.
