

Title I Home School/Parent Compact 24-25

An Agreement Between School and Parents Reflecting the Shared Responsibility for High Student Achievement

What does it mean to be a Title I School?

The emphasis in a schoolwide Title I school is serving all students. Schoolwide programs maximize the impact of Title I funding in that all funds are used to improve the educational program.

What is a family/school compact?

A Family-School Compact is an agreement between parents, students and teachers. It explains how parents and teachers will work together to make sure all students get the individual support they need to reach and exceed grade level standards.

Staff Will... 	Families will... 	Students will...
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Use the latest research to teach students. -Provide open communication through email, talking Points, conferences and phone calls. -Establish collaboration with the classroom teacher for student instruction and scheduling/pull-out. -Provide materials that are interesting and motivating. -Help parents understand instructional practices, class expectations, and grading policies. -Plan meaningful lessons that meet individual student needs. -Provide a safe school environment that promotes learning and encourages a partnership with the school. -Employ effective classroom management skills. -Promote a feeling of belonging for all. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Read with my child daily. -Attend parent/teacher conferences and school events. -Read the classroom newsletters. -Check my child's school work regularly. -Contact the teacher first when you have a concern. -Talk with my child about their school day. -Help my child make good choices by following the Student Code of Conduct. -Encourage regular and prompt attendance. -Try to keep your child in school for the full length of the day. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Complete their classwork and homework. -Read nightly with their parents. -Participate in classroom activities. -Ask questions when they need help. -Help others when it is needed. -Be responsible for their actions and behavior each day. -Be kind to others and treat their classmates in a respectful manner.