Women in STEM Club

The goal of the Millbrook High School Women in STEM Club is to provide a resource for female students who wish to learn more about STEM careers. Our goal is to help club members learn more about careers they may be passionate about and to present them with opportunities that will allow them to become involved in the scientific community

Website: <https://mhswomeninstem.weebly.com/>

Form to join: <https://tinyurl.com/mhswstem2021>

This club consists of having speakers involved in STEM come to Millbrook High School to speak about their careers. These female scientists will share their experiences in their specific field of STEM, our goal is for these speakers to provide club members with details about a career choice they may be interested in pursuing.

The club will also post regularly about new scientific opportunities, such as volunteer positions, on our website.

Students interested in being in the class should watch for information during registration, typically in February.

If you love to take pictures, write, work with graphic design, or just want to get more involved in school, we would LOVE to have you join us.
